

Glasgow GGFC Player Release Form

Every youth team coach at Glasgow GWFC has the right to release a youth team player under the age of 18 for various reason (see appendix-1) These reasons must be put in writing on this “Player Release Form” which can be printed off below.

The form when completed must be handed to the “Head of Football” and a meeting with a committee member/s and the “Head of Football” would be arranged to discuss options.

If the outcome is for the player to be released from the club a meeting with the players parent/guardian/and a committee member will be arranged and the reasons for release would be explained.

Appendix-1

- Poor behaviour at training & games
- Poor attendance at training & games
- Parents conduct (if deemed to be in breach of GGWFC policies)
- Playing time=GGWFC was founded on the basis of supporting the development of young females, football skills, social skills and physical & mental wellbeing, for this reason if a coach at GGWFC determines that any player under her/his charge will not be getting adequate game time or reasons pertinent to a players ability levels, the club would encourage and support this coach to discuss this matter with the players parent (s). This action is deemed appropriate on the basis of GGWFC child wellbeing policies with particular emphasis on the young players mental wellbeing
